

Fastaff's Commitment to Supporting Small Hospitals and Their Communities

FASTAFF'S RAPID RESPONSE® SOLUTIONS ENSURE LOCAL CARE REMAINS ACCESSIBLE

Small medical facilities need experienced nurses just as urgently as large academic centers. Often, smaller hospitals may be overlooked by partners who prioritize larger systems. For more than 30 years, Fastaff has led the industry in Rapid Response® travel nurse staffing solutions, valuing the dedication of small facilities to their communities and ensuring local care remains accessible. Fastaff's services ensure the right nurse is provided at the right time for any facility size, solving critical and time-sensitive staffing issues.

When Sauk Prairie Hospital, a 36-bed rural facility in Wisconsin, urgently required step-down nurses for their progressive care unit (PCU), they turned to Fastaff. With Fastaff's unique guaranteed delivery promise, experienced nurses are ready to work at any hospital type or size. Their deep database of nurses licensed in all 50 states allowed them to quickly recruit the six necessary PCU nurses to provide quality care in Prairie du Sac. The first qualified candidate was reviewed within 24 hours and started work in less than 10 days.

Executive Summary

- Rural hospital had urgent need for experienced PCU nurses
- Fastaff delivered experienced nurses, with the first arriving in less than 10 days
- Established "one-call" relationship with hospital for fulfillment of additional nurses orders

FASTAFF'S GUARANTEED DELIVERY SERVICE ENSURES WORLD-CLASS CARE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION

Fastaff's collaboration with Sauk Prairie administrators helped them understand the hospital's unique needs and streamline the process of requesting additional nurses through Fastaff. Hospital leadership acknowledged that although they are a smaller facility, Fastaff made them feel like a priority client. The expertise and experience shared by Fastaff's RNs provided staff with invaluable insights into healthcare, beyond their hospital.

Fastaff's guaranteed delivery service ensures that hospitals of any size can continue delivering world-class care without interruption, having experienced nurses ready to work within just 10 days or less.
